Philanthropist

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
George F. Baker (above) of New York. It was announced recently, has given $5,000,000 to the Harvard graduation school of business administration. Mr. Baker's motto is "silence." He lets his money speak for him.

Even Gay Paree Couldn't Make Him Smile

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Not a thing in gay Paree could the Ras Tafari, Abyssinian ruler (above with President Millerand) find to laugh at, by reason of which he gets much publicity.

Ruling Made While Ship Was on Sea

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Relatives visited 700 Italians in New York on the S. S. Dante Alighieri, who are barred because of court decision wiping out ruling that near relatives of resident aliens may enter.

Leveled by Sky-Born Mower

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Irresistible force of tornadoes which whirled through Southland laden with death and disaster completely mowed down cluster of houses near Laurel, Miss.

Millionaire's Son Murdered in Interest of Science

To Retire

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Guiding hand of 2,800,000 women as president of General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter (above) is in Los Angeles, where convention is to be held. She has served four years and is not eligible for reelection.

All American Rooters

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
When Epinard lost to Sir Gallahad at St. Cloud, France, the Dolly sisters with Pearl White (center) were interested spectators.

The Duke A-Golfing Goes

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Golfing with Frank Hodges (right), Labor M. P., in latter's home district in Wales. Duke of York, garbed for the occasion, received ovation. P. S.—He lost the match.

Friends in the enjoyment of their fathers' millions, companions in the murder of Robert Franks, the two youthful confessed slayers, Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb of Chicago, are enemies now. Each blamed the other for the actual killing of Robert, fourteen-year-old son of another millionaire, Jacob Franks, after kidnaping.

Honor

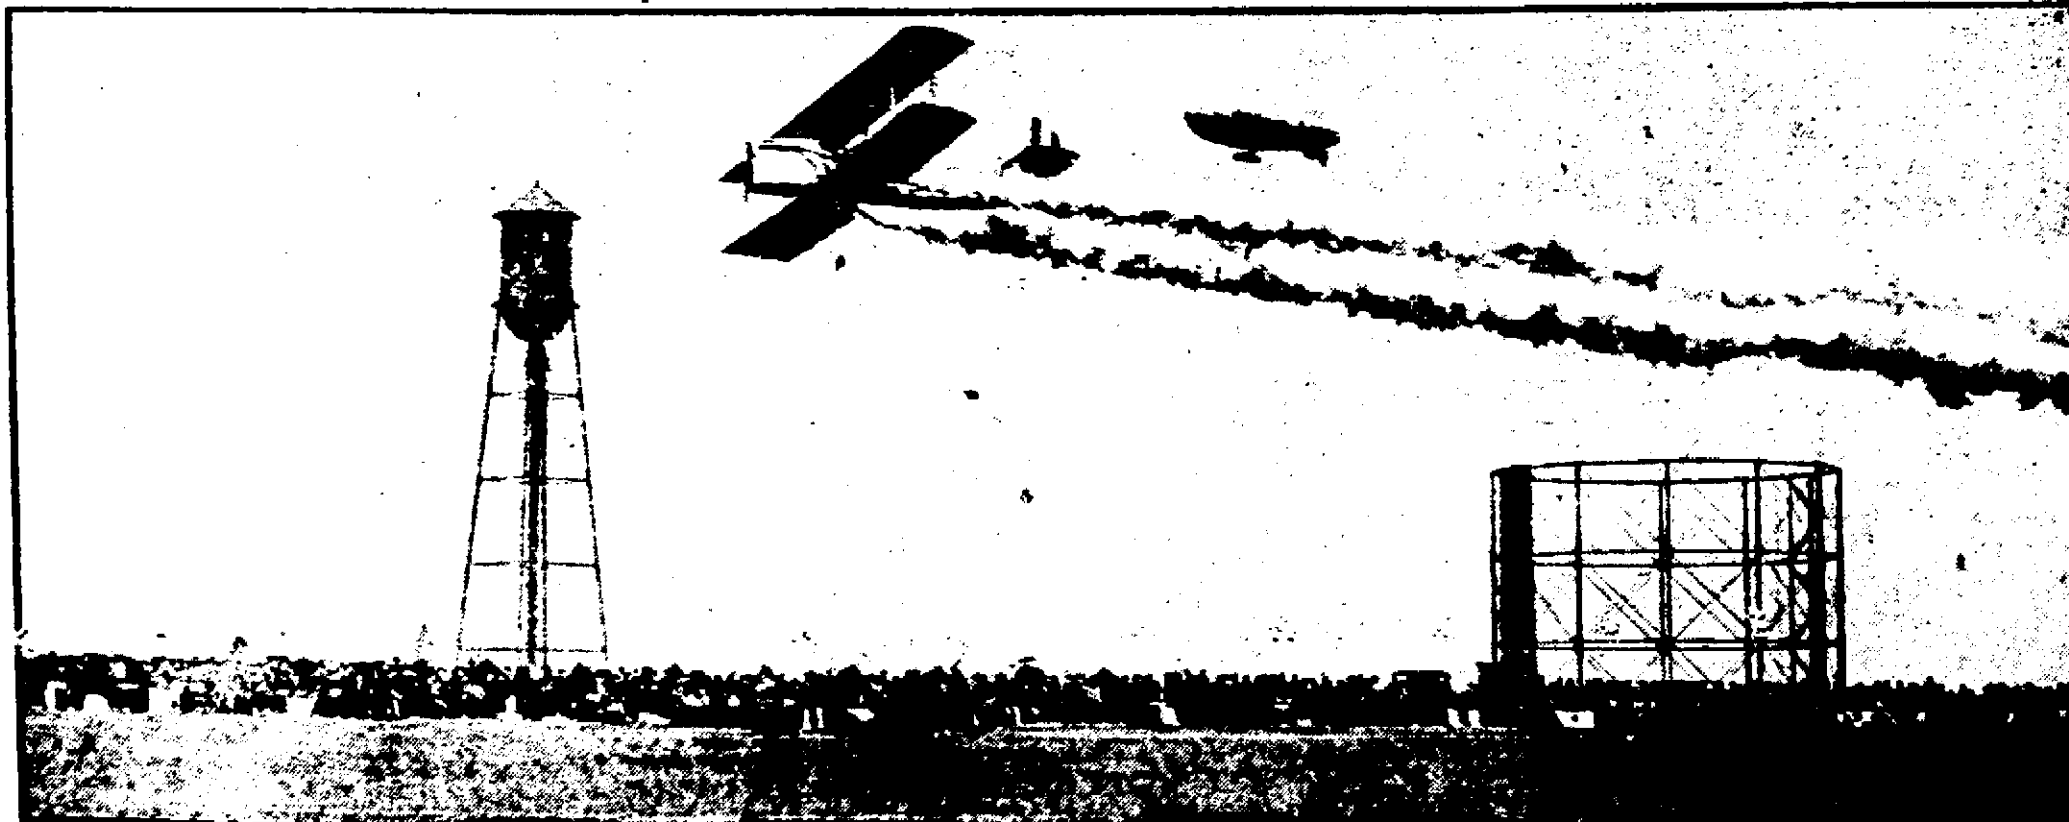

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Marion Le Roy Burton (above), president of University of Michigan, will nominate President Coolidge at the Republican national convention. Burton has never associated with politics.

Just Out of the Wilds

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Ragged, dirty and careworn, but happy withal were Major Martin (left) and Sgt. Harvey, world fliers, safe at Port Moller, after wandering in Alaska ten days.

Daredevil Airmen Palpitate Hearts of Earthbound Thousands in Daring Stunts

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Whizzing above field in mammoth ray air circus at Lakehurst, N. J., this plane laid smoke screen which rapidly obscured view. New dirigible J-1 is shown above screen.

Left to Rot Away

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Their usefulness ended, these craft, the dredge Intrepid, the Chilean ship Dharma, the schooner Eric and the steamer Virginia Dollar (left to right), are lying at Honolulu.

DAILY PUZZLE

There are nine blocks shown in the drawing, each bearing a different figure. The blocks that are piled up form four numbers of two figures each, namely: 24, 78, 15, and 39. The problem is to rearrange the blocks but still keep the four rows, and the single block. Each of the four numbers formed must be divisible by the figure on the single block, and the two figures in each number must total the single block when added together. Example: the number 24 is all right, as it is divisible by 6, and 2 plus 4 is 6. 78 is divisible by 6, but 7 and 8 add to a wrong total, 15 is not divisible by 6, but 5 and 1 total 6. 39 is all wrong. Can you change the blocks to meet the conditions of the problem?

Yesterday's answer:

If cars run from A to B at intervals of 2 minutes and the trip takes a half-hour, a car running from B to A will pass 30 cars. If it leaves B a minute before a car arrives from A. There are 15 cars already on the road from A to B, and it's more start before the opposite car arrives at A. For example, the cars from A have been traveling the following number of minutes: 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 29. Fifteen cars in all—none of them have arrived at B. The cars from B to A takes 30 minutes, and as a new car leaves A during the following minute points of the journey: 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 29.

Sees Prevention of Discord

By A. N. FREDERICK

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Probable solution of America's tremendous divorce problem may come thru radio.

This is the belief of Judge Thomas F. Graham, local divorce court magistrate, whose work has won him the title of "The Great Reconciler."

"The best time to reconcile bickering married couples is before they ever come to court," declares the judge.

For years judges have been studying this problem, how to reach potential divorces before the limit of court proceedings has been reached.

"Now we have it, and when we have brought it to proper utilization, I have no doubt the tremendous decrease in the marriage problem will follow."

Call to Attack

Upon these premises, Judge Graham has issued a call to combatants of divorce to consider the possibility of staging such an air attack on the evil.

Recently the judge sent the first of his talks by radio through station KFO, here. Response was immediate and profuse.

"Clear indication of what may be expected when the work is systematized," says the judge.

"Couples in court are separated by barriers of temper. They are hostile to suggestion and advice. They feel they have been injured beyond repair."

"This is the first obstacle which those attempting reconciliation must overcome."

Reaches Home

"Contrast this with the method made possible by radio of reaching couples when they are by their own fireside, surrounded by the things which their mutual efforts have won."

RADIO NOTES

CHILDREN ENTERTAIN
 Children will take part in radio broadcasting hereafter from WDAF, Kansas City. They will present a half-hour program every Tuesday.

FOR EARLY RISERS
 Station WOR, Newark, N. J., is beginning a daily series of morning exercises. Every morning at 7, early risers may tune in on a few setting-up exercises broadcast by Arthur E. Bagley, director of physical education at the Newark Y. M. C. A.

GUESSING CONTEST
 British broadcasting stations stage a guessing contest every Wednesday night. Instead of announcing the players and pieces played, the listeners are asked to guess them. The three prize winners are guests at the London studio.

READY TO ZR-3
 U. S. Weather Bureau and the Naval Communication Service are ready to lend hands for the flight of the ZR-3, the new German built giant air dirigible, when she comes across the Atlantic early in July. A warship in mid-ocean will stand by for emergency.

TAKING TO BOOKS
 Recent lectures on "Browning, through WEAF, New York, under auspices of Columbia University, have resulted in greater interest in books, in the opinion of Professor H. N. Fairchild, who delivered the series.

Judge Thomas F. Graham of San Francisco, considered one of cupid's greatest aids in reconciling married couples, sees another aid in radio and happy in each other's company.

"Surely, under these conditions, advice will be welcomed, not received with hostility, even at first."

Radio serves another great function in protecting the American home, the judge adds. No longer is there the same urge for one or the other to go out in search of entertainment.

The radio brings entertainment to them.

Republican national convention in night session adopts platform drafted by its resolution committee and rejects flatly plank submitted by insurgent Wisconsin delegation.

Republican platform as adopted urges American adherence to world court, prosecution of wrong doers in official positions, rigid law enforcement and calls for election of members of Congress who are faithful to tenets of the party.

Night session of convention is marked by turbulent demonstration for President Coolidge, in which Wisconsin delegation does not join.

Platform of Republican party is approved by resolutions committee only after sharp opposition to several planks and world court plank is not adopted until it is announced it was written by President Coolidge.

"B BATTERY IS RECORDED"

LONDON, June 11.—By the use of a four-stroke tube, city with two grids, two radio sets have been connected to obtain a "B" battery.

The invention was George V. Dowling and Keith D. Rodgers. Their idea is the use of an extra grid close to the filament so that the electrons will be thrown at the plate with the same force as "B" battery power on a three-element tube pulls the electrons in the plate.

THE CHURCH AT WAR NATIONS DIVIDED

Millions now living will never die

Should the persistent failure to bring peace and the collapse of nations fill us with despair?

And now Christianity develops a rift. Modernists destroy faith in the Bible; the Fundamentalists hold for unquestioned acceptance of creeds.

In what product of man's wisdom can we take refuge?

Every one of his schemes has resulted in dismal failure. Must people abandon hope?

SHOAF PITCHES FINE GAME AFTER RELIEVING HARRIS, RALLY IN 9TH

WINSTON, June 11.—The locals and the Tobaccoists worked out a 12 inning game here today in what appeared until the ninth inning to be a victory for the locals but the visitors came from behind in that inning and scored two runs to tie and battled stubbornly until darkness ended the contest with five runs for each team.

"Cudge" Harris was started for the Murphysmen and was knocked out by an availing hit in the third after one run had been scored off him. This lambasting marks the fourth time Harris has been driven from the mound before the fifth inning in his last five starts, the other time he was allowed to stay in and was badly beaten.

Danville started the scoring in the second inning by pushing across one run. The Jackson crew came back in their half and tied the count. Danville added another in the following frame and the Twins counted three times. In the fourth the locals scored two runs on the Tobaccoists counted again in the fifth. No further scoring occurred until the ninth inning when Cochlin fanned, Regan went out short, Shoaf fanned, Regan went out second to first. Trefrey beat out an infield hit on which Cochlin went to third. Murphy came through in a double and the catcher counted. Thompson developed a streak of wildness at this point and walked McDonald, filling the bases, and hit Resco, forcing in the tying run. Ryner was unable to come through with the needed hit and the side was retired. The score tied and the bases loaded.

Standart furnished the fielding feature of the day with several nice catches of foul flies. In the second, third and sixth innings Cochlin fouled out to the third baseman.

STALEY AND MYERS COME HERE IN TRADE FOR INMAN

Owner Herb Murphy, of the Tobaccoists, returned to Danville early this morning from Winston-Salem, N. C., where he led a rally that pulled the ball game out of the fire and forced the playing of the game. The news of a trade he had pulled off with Manager Jackson of the Twins whereby Danville acquires Second Baseman Staley and Shortstop Myers, recently with Winston-Salem, in exchange for Third Baseman Inman, the two new Tobaccoists will arrive in Danville in time to get into today's game with High Point. While Inman is a fine and promising young player with the physique and youth to develop into a great player, the local manager needed men who had already shown form as batsmen and fielders. Besides the two new infielders, he will have Outfielder Ryner who will make his first appearance at Stonewall Jackson park this afternoon, although he has been playing with team during the series at Winston.

The interest of the fans the following facts as to Staley and Myers, the former with Orlando, the latter with Tampa in the Florida State League in 1923 will be of interest. Staley played second base for Orlando and batted .317 in 15 games. He had 15 doubles, two triples and four home runs, made 8 sacrifice hits.

Myers, playing in 23 games with Tampa, had a batting average of .266; had two doubles and one triple and drew 15 bases on balls. He led the shortstops of the Florida State League with an average of .362. He also played nine games at third base. He made 12 sacrifice hits, stole 8 bases and drew 33 bases on balls. Both are in good condition and are fast young players.

Manager Murphy may try Myers at third base for a few days. Staley will go to second and will strengthen that pivotal position, while Regan will go back to center field. It may be said in this connection that he has played an excellent game at second base since the release of the three new players will serve to play third base as soon as Myers has been tried there for a few days. With this new line-up, the team will be greatly strengthened, particularly in the batting department and in second base play, a point at which Danville has been usually weak in its five weeks in the Piedmont.

This is Ladies' Day. weather permitting play. If rain prevents a game today, Friday will not be observed as Ladies' Day, but next Monday will be another day for the ladies. The appearance of the three new players will serve to attract many of the fans to see them perform and to give them a greeting in their debut here.

HIGH POINT DROPS THIRD GAME TO DUNCANMEN
HIGH POINT, June 11.—Suffering their third straight defeat in two days the Pointers lost to the Cellarites from Raleigh here this afternoon by a 12 to 7 score.

The defeat pulled the Pointers down within a game and a half of Durham who climbed a notch higher by virtue of their victory over Greensboro while the Duncanmen went within ten points of the fifth place. The Pointers who failed to change their standing, fighting to a twelve-round draw.

Dean was the hitting star for the visitors with three hits out of five attempts and McMahon hit a home run. Thompson also got two doubles as did L. Thrasher.

Maitzen was out fouling a third strike in attempting to bunt. The box score:

VILLA READY TO TACKLE BANTAMWEIGHT DIVISION
(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 11.—Pancheo Villa, holder to the world's flyweight title, is ready to take his place in the ranks of the bantamweights and contest for the crown which now adorns the brow of Abe Goldstein.

Villa demonstrated his prowess as a bantamweight at the Nostand A. C. in Brooklyn last night when he administered a beating to Rud Taylor, Terra Haus and crusher, in a spectacular 15-round encounter.

LATCH TUIS ONE OFF
Lute Angel Firpo has cards printed to show that he is the vice heavyweight champion of the world. The south American figure that he is showing with Dempsey entitles him to this designation.

Such popularity must be deserved

LUCK may win an occasional match. But it never made a champ. Cups can't be won year after year unless they are deserved. There are cup-winning cigarettes, too.

Such popularity is not luck. Chesterfields deserve it. They deserve it simply by right of their decidedly better taste.

Gretna

GRETTA, Va., June 11.—Wiley M. Pickrel, Jr., age three months, died at the home of his parents here today having contracted pneumonia following whooping cough. The father, W. M. Pickrel, Sr., who recently lost his right arm in a railroad accident at Reidsville, N. C., had just returned to his home from the General Hospital in Danville the day before the child died. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the town and community.

One of the heaviest rain storms that ever struck this section began about the middle of the afternoon Monday, June 9, and lasted about an hour. But for the fact that the Southern Railway Company had recently put in a large culvert under their track about 100 yards south of the depot, much damage would have been done in that part of the town. Farmers for several miles near Gretna report that their lands were washed away. A few farmers report that at least 1-1/2 to 1-3 of their entire tobacco crop was destroyed. The wheat crop was also damaged by the wind and rain.

W. W. and F. H. Altice were called to a Redwood, Franklin county, Monday night on account of the death of their mother.

R. C. Vaden is in Norfolk attending the Democratic convention.

Walter P. Tudor, of Danville, candidate for Congress, was in Gretna and vicinity Friday.

W. L. Keene, commissioner of revenue, who lives near Gretna, was exhibiting a very large rattlesnake here Saturday. Mr. Keene wounded the snake, then captured it and brought it to town alive in his car.

J. K. Price has opened up a new meat market on Main street which is one of the prettiest and most up-to-date meat markets to be found in any small town.

Mrs. C. E. Pearson, of Callands, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. White.

Among those returning to Gretna from schools and colleges are Miss Agnes Adams from C. E. L. Chatham; Miss Dorothy Gruber from St. Mary's College, Raleigh, N. C.; and Howard and Virginia.

Mrs. Cooper, of Raleigh, N. C., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Fitzgerald.

Misses Ollie Moorehead and Charlotte Marshall, of Danville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. and daughter, Lucy Leah, of Roanoke, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Webb. Mrs. Melbie Bennett, who has been living in Charlottesville, Va., for three or four years, has returned to her old home on Main street, Gretna.

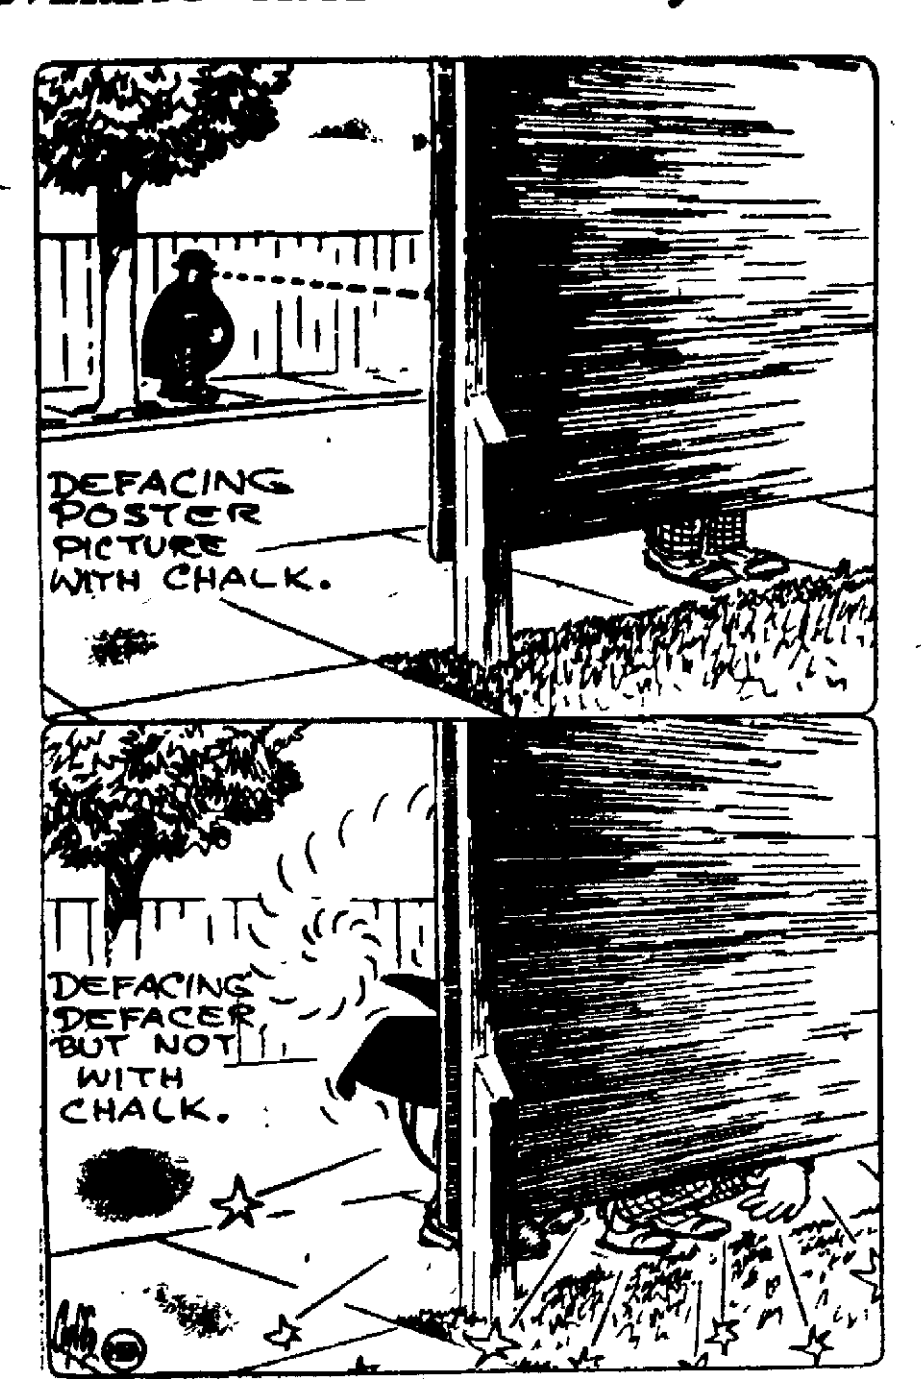

McLean and Long Appear Victors

(By The Associated Press.)
RALEIGH, N. C., June 11.—With only 117 electors out of 1,719 in the state yet to be heard from, Angus W. McLean, of Lumberton, had a lead of 67,986 over Joseph W. Bailey, of Raleigh, for the Democratic nomination for governor, according to figures compiled at 10 o'clock tonight. The figures are based on official and unofficial returns received from the primary held last Saturday.

The vote, representing 1,002 precincts was:
McLean 147,427; Bailey 79,467.

In the race for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, J. Elmer Long, of Durham, had a lead of 60,804 over about 8,000 votes with 1,482 precincts reported, the vote stood: Long 60,804; Soper 20,463; Davis 60,807.

EVERETT TRUE :: By CONDO

Dry Fork

DRY FORK, Va., June 11.—The condition of the weather has been very favorable for farming during the last week. Most all the farmers who had not finished planting their crops of tobacco and corn a week ago have now finished and are ready to begin plowing and working the first they planted.

On J. W. Bryant's tobacco farm, one of the largest operated in the community, the tobacco has begun to show up fine and the people all over the farm are very busy plowing and hoeing it. He also has a very fine crop of corn and wheat, which is growing equally as fast as the tobacco.

Road Improvement.
B. H. Elliott is greatly handicapped with the building of the shoulders on the highway between Chatham and Dry Fork at the present time, because of the fact that he hasn't any plans for setting purposes. He has now cut out from other work, on account of his truck being in Lynchburg for repair. He is expecting his driver, R. G. Meadows, to bring it in this afternoon or tomorrow morning, and then he can start to work on it.

He is also expecting some more stone and will resume the building of the shoulders as soon as it arrives.

Sunday School

The officers and teachers of Oakland Sunday school were well pleased with their school last Sunday morning. The men's Bible class had nearly twice as many as they had the first Sunday and the young girls' class had a very fine attendance. Mrs. J. C. Taylor was more than pleased with her class of boys, which had the largest attendance of any in the school, considering the usual attendance. Class number four and the card class had about the usual attendance. There were several visitors from other schools in each class, who seemed to have enjoyed a great deal being with the school. We have a class for everybody and wish to give them a cordial invitation. Service at ten o'clock in the morning.

Sunday Evening Service.
Rev. J. T. Owen, conducted a very fine service at Oakland Sunday evening beginning at eight o'clock. The people first had a fine song service, led by E. W. Jones and then a fine sermon delivered by Rev. Owen. There was a good crowd and everybody seemed to have enjoyed very much the fine service. We have service every Sunday evening. Song service at seven-thirty and preaching at eight, beginning next Sunday. Come on with us.

Reports From The Sick.
Mrs. Luther Oakes, who suffered a relapse last Thursday night seems to have steadily grown. The doctors now have very little hope for her. It seems hard to determine just what her trouble is.

Mrs. George Collins was brought home from the hospital in Danville, last Sunday and is improving as fast as could be expected, after being carried that far.

Mrs. George Pillow, who has been ill for some time, is some better.

Mrs. W. W. Worley, who has been suffering with a serious case of indigestion, which is causing heart trouble, is now slowly improving.

ARMY BATTLES MAY ASCEND WELTER THRONE

The United States Army may produce the next welterweight champion. Eddie Burnbrook is the young gent's name and he is coming along with great strides in professional rings.

Burnbrook is rugged, can hit and is as game as they make 'em. Recently he battled the formidable Paul Doyle in New York. In the second round Doyle dropped him cold with a right to the jaw. The soldier fighter just did get on his feet at count to nine. The bell saved him. The next round rounds brought Burnbrook around fine, after which he stepped out and punched Mr. Doyle to pieces, winning every one of the remaining 10 rounds.

WALKER LOOKS GOOD

Despite the fact that he had been inactive for months Mickey Walker, the welterweight champion, looked great against Lew Tindler, the Philadelphia veteran, in their recent fight. Experts are agreed that Walker is a real champion.

In New York

BY STEPHEN HANNAGAN
NEW YORK, June 12.—The corner drug store is now about as well and variously stocked as the one general store in any crossroads hamlet.

I tried to get a simple prescription filled the other day. I had to visit five stores before I could find one equipped to do it.

And one of the clerks asked, "what color is it supposed to be?" while examining the doctor's orders. If it had been a color chart instead of a note in Latin he'd have made a sale.

But you can get most anything from a kit of tools to a suit of clothes in the corner service. Handkerchiefs, shoe polish, fruit, Mah Jongg sets, meals—most everything but drugs, and you can get those if they're patent medicines.

A clerk in the average drug store today must have served an apprenticeship in a dairy lunch, a shoe store, hardware counter, near-beer saloon, pool room, hospital and a fortune teller's booth to be able to cater to the needs of his clients.

Women who make their permanent home in hotels are the most pitiful sights in New York. They excite most sympathy within me than the most ragged urchin of the tenement section.

Middle age approaches with hurried steps. Their faces become pallid; pouches project from beneath their eyes. Simmering with searching for something to do; they walk listlessly and while constantly.

They have nothing to do, no interests to enthuse them. Most of them have seen every play except "Uncle Tom's Cabin" which they consider was before their time. They tend to sleep and drink. Their waking hours are devoted to a hollow attempt to "have a good time."

Money and leisure, extravagantly spent, are dangerous weapons.

EARTH SHOCKS RECORDED

(By The Associated Press.)
SANTIAGO, Chile, June 11.—Five earth shocks were recorded on the seismographs here yesterday and last night but they were not felt by the population generally. They were said to have affected the central zone between Coquimbo and Tarma.

A heavy earthquake had been predicted for the middle of May, culminating in a series of seismic disturbances similar to the tidal wave which occurred here last week.

COOLIDGE FAVORS LIBERAL ADMINISTRATION OF LAWS

TODAY'S Washington LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Of the 2198 delegates and alternates who will hold the right to vote for Democratic presidential candidates at New York, 2168 might as well be voteless.

For in the final showdown, the man who emerges as Democratic standard bearer will be determined within a little group numbering not more than 20 individuals. These are the men who will control the men who hold the votes after the deadlock has nullified the "instructions" by which the majority of delegations will be found at the start.

Some of these, perhaps half a dozen, qualify under the designation of "bosses." The remaining 20-odd, as befitting their dignity and the scope of their influence, are "party leaders."

But together, the bosses and the leaders, a mere handful in number, will decide who is to be the candidate.

George Washington Olney, of New York, new chief of staff of Tammany, together with Norman Mack of Buffalo, former Democratic chairman, and Frank Hague of New Jersey, will decide what disposition is to be made of the Smith strength should the hour come when they admit his defeat.

Tom Taggart, of Indiana, Joseph X. Curley, of Massachusetts, and Gen. Brennan of Illinois complete the sextet of "bosses" who will be "in on" the final arrangements.

Leading candidates at the time of the deadlock, of course, will have some say-so as to what combinations will be tried out next. When McAdoo gives up, if that hour arrives, his wishes will be followed first in trying a gradual switch to the rival most in his favor. If that fails to draw support from other camps, another test with another dark horse will be made.

This see-sawing, this tentative feeling out of sentiment for the various candidates, may continue through many ballots. In these manipulations all sorts of combinations may be tried out, not merely by McAdoo and his lieutenants but by Smith, Underwood, Glass, Davis, Ritchie and their lieutenants.

In addition to the "bosses" and the major candidates involved, the men who have a hand in shaping the final decision, and who will command enough strength to make their decision stick, include:

Cordell Hull, present national chairman; Homer Cummings, former chairman; George White, who managed the Cox campaign; Senator Pat Harrison, keynote speaker; Senator Joe Robinson, Democratic Senate leader; E. T. Meredith of Iowa, former secretary of agriculture; "Tom" Love of Texas; William Kemper, Missouri; Walsh of Montana, oil investigator; Fred Lynch of Minnesota; Bernard M. Baruch of New York; Vance McCormick of Pennsylvania; and Senators Simmons of North Carolina, Stanley of Kentucky and Swanson of Virginia.

Somewhere in that list of bosses, leaders and Democrats of influence lies the combination that will name the Democratic leader.

But just what that combination will be, how it will shape, and why, can only be guessed at in advance. Ralston, of Indiana, it may be noted, although mentioned as among the first line of "dark horse" possibilities, is not included.

Ralston's fate will be determined irrespective of any activities by himself. The "uninstructed" Indiana delegation will be in the hands of Taggart, who will start them in for Ralston, without his name having been placed formally before the convention. Where Ralston and the Indiana votes finally wind up will be determined, as will the result of the convention, by the control of 30 men over the 1098 ballots cast.

WELL, THAT'S THE HONORABLE ARTHUR GUMPS, THE WELL-KNOWN STATESMAN - HE IS ONE OF MY DEAREST FRIENDS.

HE LOOKS TO ME LIKE SOMEBODY WHO WAS BORN FOR AND COULDN'T COME - I'M JUST GOING TO STEP OVER AND HAVE A LITTLE TALK WITH HIM.

SAY, YOU! WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA OF MAKING 600-600 EYES AT MY LUNY FRIEND? ARE YOU FOND OF ARNICA?

JUST A MINUTE - I DON'T KNOW YOU - THERE MUST BE SOME MISTAKE.

YOU ARE THE ONLY MISTAKE AROUND HERE - AND I KNOW ALL ABOUT YOU - I JUST WANT TO WARN YOU - IN THE FUTURE KEEP AWAY FROM MY FRIEND BASE - IF YOU SAY ONE WORD TO HER OR EVEN LOOK AT HER AGAIN I'LL SLAP YOU INTO A HOSPITAL - I DON'T LIKE YOUR FACE AND I HAVE A NOTION TO CHANGE IT RIGHT NOW.

IT TELL THE WORLD IF THAT BIG BLUFFER HAD SAID ANOTHER WORD I'D HAVE KNOCKED HIM FOR A ROW OF LAMP-POSTS - I'M GLAD I KEPT MY TEMPER - I DON'T WANT TO START A BRIMBLY WHILE LADIES WERE PRESENT - BUT IF I EVER MEET HIM ON THE STREET HE'LL BE CARRYING A HANDBY REVENGE CANNON - THAT'S WHAT I'VE SAID.

America Just a Machine

JAMES LUCEY

By JAMES LUCEY
Shoemaker Friend of President Coolidge.

CLEVELAND, O., June 12.—This fellow Robert LaFollette is talking about bolting.

A man who eats sour grapes never gets fat. Hiram Johnson might tell LaFollette that much. LaFollette may have a lot of fine ideas, but are they the people's ideas? And why does he want to bolt, anyhow? He talks about saving the nation or something. What is it that he is going to save the nation from?

LaFollette might go out as an independent to win what he wants, but the people of the country have a pretty good idea of their own about what they want, and it is not LaFollette.

It is hard to buck the machine in this country. I do not mean that our country is being run by a machine, but that our country is a machine. It is a day of machines.

Take the shoemaking business for instance. I learned my trade long before machines were thought of and when they came in I stuck to my own style of work. I had learned my trade well (sometimes I think I learned how to do something that isn't worth doing) and I could ask fancy prices. Today I charge as much or more than anybody in the country for my work. But no matter how fast I work I am yet but a shoemaker who earns a modest living by hand.

People like machines, for they do their work, giving time for other things. People like to have their government working steadily and smoothly like a machine, for the same reason.

Out of the Republican convention will come the man and the platform for our next four years, and what ever comes out, the country will know there is security in it.

Things will run along smoothly and everybody will be allowed to go along with their own business undisturbed.

I say all this regardless of what or who LaFollette may be. People are afraid of a man who bolts, for he is by nature a man who shakes things up.

Coolidge is a strong man and a popular one, and the people know that he will keep things running smoothly for best results.

He won't keep them going smoothly just for the sake of peace, but because he is a diplomat and a great man. He can get the maximum of peace out of any situation.

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon.)

NEW YORK, June 12.—Have you ever given much thought to the subject of reciprocity? It plays a big part in business. We all know in a general way that if we favor some country or some section that country or section will in turn favor us, that if you buy from John, John in turn will buy from you. If you help to make the farmer prosperous, the farmer in turn will do something to make you prosperous. This is reciprocity in business. There is also a reciprocal process operating between general business and the security markets. We know that one helps to the other, but not certain as to whether this process must begin at one place or the other but I find that it invariably does start in the security market. An advance in the security market does two important things: It increases the worth of the individual's holdings, thus creating purchasing power and it also creates that national state which encourages one to buy something. This puts a dollar in motion, keeps the wheels of industry revolving. Let us help the good cause by buying stocks. Business will follow.

MORNING COTTON LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon.)

NEW YORK, June 12.—Cables about as due. The south had scattered showers in the eastern and central sections yesterday, mostly clear in the western belt with temperatures up to 100 in Abilene and 94 at Oklahoma City. Forecast is for showers east and clear and warmer west.

There were messages yesterday stating that very hot weather now might be as harmful as the cold weather in May.

Strength in late trading due to covering on fear of more semi-monthly reports as low as National Ginners and in sympathy with stocks and grain.

The market is small and easily becomes overbid.

The REFEREE

BY ALBERT APPLE.

SIBERIA

Gold—enough to give $100,000 apiece to 60,000 people—lies unmined in Siberia, waiting to be taken out of the ground. Six billion dollars is the total value. This is the estimate of American mining engineers who have been looking the country over. And yet this gold is only a shadow of Siberia's greater natural resources—fabulous amounts of coal and oil, everything from tobacco and cotton to grapes and watermelons.

This treasure is at Japan's elbow. She knows it. Watch.

The search for wealth continues never-endingly, and takes strange forms. Men seeking riches are going deeper into the earth than ever before. The supply of natural gas is swiftly dwindling. So a hole two miles deep, in hopes of gas at a new low level, is being drilled near Terra Alta, W. Va.

A wildcatting oil well at Carnarvon, South Africa, has reached a depth of nearly a mile. Far away, in the San Juan del Rey mine in Brazil, miners work 726 feet underground.

We would be cases of secretaries if we were a quadruped as industrious for knowledge as for riches.

INVESTMENTS
The French people have $600 million dollars invested in foreign countries, not counting Russian loans which have vanished in smoke. Their income from these sources is 240 millions a year. That's a return of five per cent, which should enlighten those who think they can get something for nothing. A Frenchman's genius.

SIDE-LINE

From Argentina comes word that teachers there are not allowed to work full-time. They can have classes morning or afternoon, but not both. This gives them opportunity to devote half the day to outside jobs in business, trades or professions. So it's not uncommon to find a doctor or lawyer teaching a daily class. This divided-activity system might be welcomed by teachers in America, which pays its brain instructors outrageously low. But that's the natural reaction of a race devoting nine-tenths of its time and more to the body, only a tenth to the intellect.

ANYONE
Some of the French are working like beavers to repair war losses, while their leaders chew the rag and play to the galleries.

A striking example is the French merchant marine, now 4,200,000 tons, almost twice as big as before the war. In 1919 it had dropped to about 1,700,000 tons.

Is it a natural growth? French clinging to their homeland, more than any other race. How many French immigrants have you ever seen?

UNDERGROUND
Strange and ancient people who live in holes in the ground are discovered in Africa. Ashton, explorer who found them, calls them Troglodytes, meaning "cave dwellers."

The apartment house dweller in our cities has much in common with the African Troglodytes. Yet either would pay admission to see the other in his native haunts. Next time you're at the zoo or circus, observe that the monkeys are more interested in the crowds than the crowds in the monkeys.

Edwards Knows Commuter's Life

By NEA Service.
WASHINGTON, June 12.—At least once a week Senator Edward J. Edwards of New Jersey hops off a train from Jersey City and walks two blocks to the Senate office building to start his daily job of senatoring.

That's why they call him the Commuting Senator.

Edwards is president of a bank in Jersey City and usually on Saturday morning he is playing banker.

Monday sees him back in Washington.

For the balance of the week the senator rises at 7 and goes horseback riding or hiking before breakfast.

By 9 he is at his desk and whenever the Senate convenes he most always answers roll call.

A cup of coffee and possibly a sandwich answers at lunch time. Edwards would rather stretch his long legs up and down the capitol corridors than eat.

The afternoon is spent in the Senate or at his desk and 5:30 finds him homeward bound—to a hotel where he lives with his wife daughter and son.

It's a toss-up whether the senator spends the evening reading or walking. At a theater or early to bed.

Edwards gets the greatest kick out of playing with his grandchildren, down at his country place at Caldwell, N. J. He always spends a share of the summer there.

There are three outstanding touches of originality to the senator from New Jersey. He is one of the few senators who really wears a frock coat, he still dons a derby, and he parks trick glasses on his nose, each lens being about the size of a nickel.

SENATOR EDWARDS

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 12.—The cotton market was lower during today's early trading on continued favorable weather in the south and the absence of any active demand.

The opening was steady at a decline of one to 10 points. Slight rallies right after the call met increased offerings, active months selling about 10 to 17 points net lower.

July declined to 28 1/2 and October to 25 1/2. Selling on the better weather was checked to some extent by expectations of bullish mid month condition figures however and there were rallies toward the end of the first hour.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.—The cotton market opened quiet and slightly easier. Liverpool was hardly as good as due and weather and crop news were favorable. First trades showed losses of 14 to 15 points and prices eased off immediately after the opening.

July trading down to 27 1/4. October 25 01 and December 24 79 or 19 to 21 points below the previous close. The reactionary trend was held in check by the lowered federal reserve discount rate and the active stock market.

Deny Sensational Divorce Complaint

(By The Associated Press.)

TACOMA, Wash., June 12.—Attorney for Kenneth Ross MacLean has entered a general denial of the sensational divorce complaint filed by Mrs. MacLean on June 7, in which she accused her young husband of smothering their 12-year-old daughter to death in a Brunswick, Maine, hotel, last February. The answer is on file here in the Superior Court of Pierce County.

MacLean states that the infant met death accidentally while in the custody of the mother and after MacLean had left the hotel for the night. He asks that the case be dismissed.

Books closed on Tuesday offering of $150,000, 2 1/2 per cent certificates of indebtedness. Issue oversubscribed.

Surplus freight cars May 31 were 158,524, gain of 7,514 since May 22.

W. T. Grant Company May sales were 14.38 per cent above last May. Five months gained 21.73 per cent.

Firpo's Father Is Declared Sane

(By The Associated Press.)

RIENOVES, AIRE, June 12.—Luigi Firpo's father has been released from the private insane asylum in which he was held being declared of sound mind yesterday by medical officers in court here.

Examination of the elder Firpo was ordered by Judge Librali following an appeal addressed to the court in which the father of the pugilist said he was being unjustly detained in the asylum at the instance of his son.

BATHING SUIT SENT HER IN ENVELOP TOO MUCH, SHE DISCARDS IT

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, June 12.—Male persons inhabiting the hotels, apartments and villas on the high cliffs overlooking the little bay of Monaco at Monte Carlo are equipping themselves with spy glasses, and the pilot of the joy riding rickety old seaplane is doing a rushing business, since Mary Garden has been taking the sun cure. Mary, attired in a nifty one-piece bathing suit, which a Paris house sent her by mail in an ordinary envelope, takes a swim on the beach, then rows a couple of hundred yards off the shore in a rowboat, sits on the bottom of the boat and carefully wriggles out of her bathing suit, and lies there while the sun bakes her creamy cuticle to a dull brick red brown. That is the time the spy glasses and airplane passengers get busy.
